

Washover Shoe

Wellpro Group have extensive washover shoe experience. We have a variety of designs and sizes available from our rental fleet.

Operational requirements dictate that many of these are designed and manufactured to suit specific client downhole applications.

The washover shoe design examples include flat, scalloped and castellated. The shoes can be dressed with the required cutting medium internally and externally. A variety of cutting structure, diameter and connection configurations can be supplied.

Specifications and features

- Utilised in washover operations such as dressing of fish including Coil Tubing dressing
- Proven and field-tested cutting structures available – Crushed carbide, Carbide inserts, Diamond Impreg, PDC
- Can be designed and manufactured to suit specific size, application and connections
- Robust design

